

Tips on Searching for Short Term Housing

Below are links and information that may be useful when starting to search for your housing.

Searching for Apartments

All Inclusive Housing: www.thdirect.com/join/fusion-medical-staffing/119

Search Local: Google search “Property Management”
Call the local Chamber of Commerce, ask if they have a “list of landlords”
Search the local paper

Furniture Needs: <https://www.cort.com/>
Call and mention you work for Fusion Medical Staffing

Craigslist: If you tried the above and you’re struggling to lock in housing, you may want to book a hotel for a week . Once you get to town you can ask around or search Craigslist. It’s recommended that you do not book Craigslist unless you’re able to see the listing in person.

Searching for Hotels

Discount Sites:

Hotel Tip: If you need to book a hotel for part or all of the assignment, call the hotel and ask for a sales manager or a director of sales to discuss a long-term stay. Explain that you are helping out at the hospital and see if they are able to negotiate. This will be helpful for stays longer than 2 weeks.

Rental Car Discount Code

This discount code can be used to book rental cars with Fusion's negotiated rates.

Book at:

www.enterprise.com or www.nationalcar.com

Code: XZ62581

Payment:

A personal card must be entered for payment/booking

- Ask location about insurance coverages.
- Prices at airports are generally quite high, we recommend booking a rental car offsite if possible.
- If the only available option at the time of arrival is the airport, it may be more cost effective to book the airport pick up and then swap the vehicle at an offsite location after a few days.
